Old Fort High School Old Fort, N. C.

We today live in a world of constant change. Our four years in high school have seen numerous changes, many of which can be seen throughout our school. New rooms, new teachers, new students and new ways of looking at things are added each year. As we have learned, there are also values that never change--knowledge, mutual respect, and true friendship.

We, the Arrowhead staff, have attempted to record a portion of our memories at Old Fort High School in this, the 1965-66 volume of The Arrowhead.

To look up and not down,

The growth made by our school has been matched only by the growth in community spirit now found in Old Fort.

Presented to the school by the senior class of 1964-65, our North Carolina flag now flies proudly on the school campus.

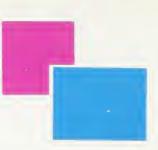

To look forward and not back,

With the addition of a new guidance office and a full-time guidance counselor, many more students are being helped to find answers to their questions about the future.

To look out

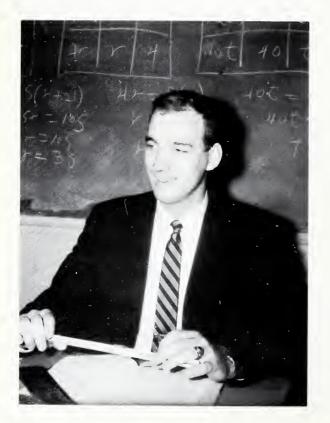

and not in

The achievements in athletics and school spirit can be symbolized to some extent by the number of trophies acquired over the last year.

The growth in enrollment has made it necessary to use mobile class units until additional classes can be built.

and— To lend a hand.

Aperson of rare qualities, Mr. Donald Smith commands the admiration, respect, and friendship of all with whom he comes in contact. Never too busy to lend a helping hand, he is a friend to students and fellow faculty members. Because of the help and inspiration he has been to us, the 1965-66 SENIOR CLASS gratefully dedicates our annual, The Arrowhead, to Mr. Donald Smith.

Administration

and

Curriculum

Administration

Accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools this year was largely due to the conscientious and efficient leadership of principal P.W. Greer. Seeking to improve the quality of education at Old Fort High School, Mr. Greer directed the faculty in compiling information and courses of study for accreditation. Having achieved this goal, Mr. Greer continues to lead the school toward better education.

As superintendent of public schools of Mc-Dowell County, Mr. James E. Johnson carries grave responsibilities. Accurate and efficient supervising by Mr. Johnson make his services desired by all the schools.

Serving as assistant principal and guidance counselor, Mr. James R. Washburn works to improve high school functions and to assist the student as an individual.

Being the school secretary, Mrs. Margie Thomason is a great asset to school management. Her accuracy makes for a more competent system of school management.

Mathematics

The Mathematics Department seeks to develop an appreciation for mathematics as a useful art. The department is also concerned with the student as an individual, to improve his quality of thinking and reasoning in mathematical as well as non-mathematical situations.

Mr. Donald Smith Physics and Algebra I Berea College, B. A. Freshman Sponsor

Mr. Charles Gibbs Algebra II and Advanced Math Brevard College A.S.T.C., B.S. Freshman Sponsor

Mrs. Bula Taylor Refresher Arithmetic W.C.U.N.C., B. S. Sophomore Sponsor

Learning the basic rudiments of Algebra I, an industrious group of freshmen give their full attention to the work at hand.

Refresher Math gives students a working knowledge of Arithmetic that will greatly aid them in later life.

Seniors discover the secrets of Advanced Math and realize what a challenge college will be.

Agriculture

The main objective of the Agricultural Department is to provide occupational guidance and leadership training and to help individuals look ahead to further training and job placement.

Mr. Donald Anderson Agriculture N. C. State, B. S.

Mr. Anderson demonstrates the use of a complicated power saw to a first year ag. student.

Learning to draw to scale is also an important part of the education that an agricultural student receives.

FFA

In sponsoring the F.F.A., Mr. Anderson helps boys to develop agricultural programs in their own communities.

Home Economics

Mrs. Sue Glovier Home Economics A.S.T.C., B. S.

Department

The major goal of the Home Economics Department is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and in the future.

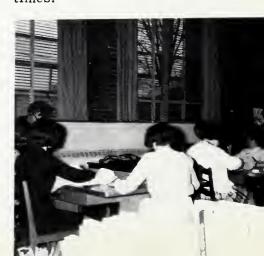

Third year Home Ec. girls further their know-ledge in the basic fundamentals of homemaking.

Taking second year Home Economics, girls strive to increase their abilities in the kitchen.

Freshman girls, taking Home Economics for the first time, find that it can be very trying at times.

FHA Chapter

Having many varied projects, the Old Fort FHA Chapter has had a very active year. One of the most successful projects, tried for the first time this year, was a babysitting service, which not only gave the members an opportunity to earn money, but also gain knowledge in the care of children. The ultimate wish of the club has been to attend the State Convention at Raleigh.

FHA officers elected by the club members, are the following girls: Loretta Freeman, parliamentarian; Carole Allison, vice-president; Gail McGinnis, reporter; Linda Wilson, president; Sharon Hendley, treasurer; and Doris Bryant, secretary, who work together diligently to make the club's efforts a success.

Sponsoring the FHA Chapter, Mrs. Glovier gives her advice willingly to make the chapter a more worthwhile organization.

Mrs. Yvonne Lewis English Mars Hill College, B. A. Senior Sponsor

English

The main objective of the language arts department is to provide learning experiences that will help each student achieve personal, social, and occupational competence.

Miss Phyllis Moore English East Tennessee State University, B. S. Senior Sponsor

Understanding English grammar requires one's full attention, as an intent group in Mrs. Smith's class discovers.

Miss Moore offers advice to her sophomore English class as they explore the wonders of good literature.

Mrs. Lewis' freshman English class studies the composition of a theme.

Mrs. Rachel Smith English and French Meredith College Sophomore Sponsor

French

The main purposes of the French Department are to acquaint students with France, its people, and its culture, and to further relationships with English and French speaking peoples through a common language bond.

Les officers du Cercle Français sont David Rhinehart, presidente; Bobby Sutton, vice presidente; James Knupp, secretaire; Linda Morris, tresorier; et Nancy Allison, journaliste.

First year French students learn the fundamentals of French grammar.

Mr. Kenneth Griffin Physical Education and Coach Catawba College, B. S. Freshman Sponsor

Mr. John Bumgarner Social Studies A.S.T.C., B.S. Senior Sponsor

Social Studies

Mr. H. Clark Social Studies and Coach A.S.T.C., B. S. Junior Sponsor

Molding the thinking and actions of the students to fit into the democratic way of life, the social studies department is one of the most important departments of our school. The chief objective of this department is to help prepare the student of today for the role of leader tomorrow.

Studying and understanding the work of our government helps to make civics' students better citizens.

Understanding the social processes of a complex world calls for much concentrated study by sociology students.

The study of U. S. History, though uninteresting to some people, sheds a new light on our American heritage.

Science

To aid in the exploration of the interests, aptitudes, and capacities of the pupils and to help pupils to use good judgements in selecting reliable scientific resources are two of the objectives of the science department. The department also seeks to acquaint the student with the basic laws of the physical universe.

After a few weeks of aching muscles, freshman girls adapt to the strains of the Phys. Ed. class.

Mrs. Bula Taylor Biology W.C.U.N.C., B.S. Sophomore Sponsor

Mr. Donald Smith Chemistry and Physics Berea, B. A. Freshman Sponsor

Mrs. Martha Fender Physical Science and Physical Education A.S.T.C., B.S. Freshman Sponsor

Mr. Kenneth Griffin Physical Education and Coach Catawba College, B.S. Freshman Sponsor

The inner structure of animals proves to interest greatly most of the biology students.

Physics students observe the demonstration of Newton's Third Law of Motion.

Wonders of the earth never cease to amaze students of physical science.

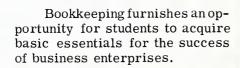

Mrs. Truby Painter Commercial Western Carolina College, B. S. Junior Sponsor

Business

The purpose of the Business Department is not only to teach skills in various subjects, but also to train the whole individual as a well rounded person. The good attitudes he develops will aid each person as he applies the knowledge he has gained.

First year typing students must give their full attention to the job at hand in order to acquire the skills they need to become good typists.

Office Practice students develop techniques in business organization and procedures that the businessman looks for when hiring office workers.

Activities

Members of the faculty were among the honored guests of the evening.

Following an excellent dinner, there was dancing to the music of a live combo.

The Juniors were fortunate to acquire the services of the Sabres for the biggest social event of the year.

Junior-Senior Banquet

After a year of hard work the Junior Class honored the Senior Class with a dance and a banquet. The banquet was held on May 7 at the Old Fort Golf Course Clubhouse.

The Freddy, a popular dance of the day was skillfully??? executed by everyone including Mr. Gibbs.

After an evening of activity, everyone enjoyed a period of relaxation.

1965 Graduates

A sad group of 68 Seniors made their last farewells to their Alma Mater in graduation services on May 28, 1965.

Class of 1965

Academic excellence is the trademark of Sandra Knupp, Valedictorian, and Rita Silver, Salutatorian.

Poise, beauty, and personality combined to make Judy Harris the choice of the student body for 1965 Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming-

Even after suffering a defeat at the hands of Spruce Pine by a score of 40-7, students will remember the 1965 Homecoming as one of the most outstanding in the school's history. Largely due to a "Red-and-White" Day, sponsored by the Student Council, and an exciting pep rally held on Friday afternoon, school spirit was at its peak. A parade held after school honored the Redskins and the Homecoming Court. A dance after the emotion-packed game topped off the evening and the Homecoming festivities.

Elected by the football team, Linda Wilson reigned as Football Queen representing the boys in the Homecoming activities.

The students made the choice of Homecoming Queen by voting among five senior girls nominated by the senior class.

After being escorted around the field, the Football Queen was crowned by the team captain, Leonard Walker.

highlight of the season.

The Homecoming Court consisted of Patsy Oates, Junior Representative; Lavonne Connor, Senior Representative; Marjorie Banner, Freshman Representative; Kaye Elliott, Sophomore Representative; and Brenda Bartlett, Representative of the School Spirit Organization.

Students found enjoyment in preparing for the Homecoming festivities.

Waiting in the lunchroom during the first half of the game, the Homecoming court anxiously awaits halftime activities.

Fall Festival

Highlighting the night was the crowning of Queen Brenda Bartlett escorted by Gary Lavendar and Princess Judy Lewis escorted by Steve Robertson.

The School Band, directed by sophomore Mike Hogan, entertained with several renditions as the show got under way.

The Hales--Libby Piercy, Susan Ramsey, and Theresa Early--sparkled the show with "There's a Summer Place".

Clogging, a regular pastime for eight of our student body, displayed itself well.

Athletics

Baseball

Although the Redskins started out the season slowly, they finished with a flourish, knocking off three other contenders for the Skyline Conference Crown.

Billy Lytle led the team in batting with a .333 mark, which helped him to win the most valuable player award. Pitcher Wayne McCauley had only a 3--3 won and lost record, but he possessed a 0.27 earned run average.

Second baseman Johnny Oates scoops up a hard hit ground ball.

Billy Snyder warms up before coming to bat.

The mile relay team, Mike Hensley, Ronda Lewis, Johnny Allison, Dean Thomason, and Ray Allison, consistent throughout the season, placed third in all meets.

The team's fastest runner, Mike Hensley, prepares for the dashes.

Track

Though handicapped by having the smallest squad in the conference Old Fort was able to place third in the conference by consistently picking up points in each meet. Only the strong teams of Glen Alpine and N.C.S.D. were able to out-shine the under-manned Redskins.

Football

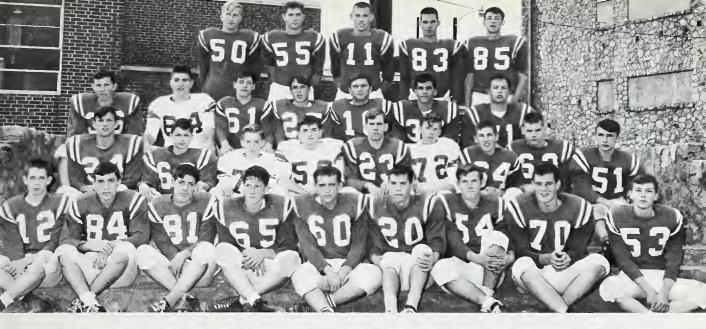

Almost perfect timing is required for a play to be successful. The Redskin backfield drills hard to make the season a success.

Captain Larry Moore, a six foot defensive end, and co-captain Carroll Turner, a six-foot three inch quarterback and interior lineman, pose for the cameras before taking part in a team scrimmage. A 3-6-1 won and lost record is not the best in the world, but it indicates that better things are to come. The returning boys are eager to get back to the practice field; they believe a conference championship is not too far from reality.

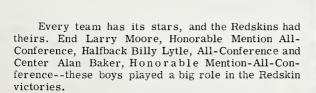

Head coach Hildred Clark and his assistant Ken Griffin have introduced a new brand of football at Old Fort. Coach Clark has brought with him a philosophy of football that can be summed up in these words: "I want to win." His team shows great promise for the future with many talented lettermen returning.

Old Fort Maidens

Captain Theresa Early and co-captains Libby Piercy and Judy Crawford listen as Coach Clark explains the fundamentals of basketball.

Starting the season with a new coach, Mr. H. B. Clark, the Maidens began the process of rebuilding a new team having lost four of last year's starters. Six Freshmen added strength to the squad which had only three seniors. Libby Piercy received the honor of being chosen on the Skyline Conference Team.

Seeing plenty of action, Loretta Evans, Theresa Early, Patsy Oates, and Linda Morris prove their prowess and agility as guards.

Leading the Maidens in scoring are Kaye Elliott, Diane Silver, Libby Piercy, and Judy Crawford.

Old Fort Redskins

The starting five which led Old Fort through its second undefeated season consists of Billy Snyder, Billy Lytle, Wayne McCauley, David Rhinehardt, and Johnny Oates.

For the second straight season the Redskins ended their regular season undefeated with a record of 20-0. They breezed through county and Skyline competition with their closest games at Salem and Nebo. Their first loss occurred in the finals of the McDowell County Tournament when they were upset by the Nebo Bears 63-60. Getting revenge, the Redskins routed Nebo 71-57 in the finals of the District Six Tournament at Gardner-Webb College to win a berth in the State Tournament at Durham. Victory over Midway was the result of their first game on Thursday in the State Play-offs. Nevertheless, a strong opponent, Ayden, on Friday night caused the Redskins to succumb. Saturday night, Old Fort dropped the consolation to Jonesville and took their place as 4th in the state. Truly, one can still say that the Redskins are champions among champions.

To add to the above laurels Billy Lytle and Wayne McCauley were chosen for the "All-County and All-Skyline Conference" teams for the school year, 1965-66. An additional honor was bestowed upon Billy Lytle when he was chosen to play in "Blue-White All-Star" game.

Being pursued by three Nebo players, Oates goes in for a lay-up.

A hustling Snyder makes a steal from a Drexel player.

Rhinehardt moves in for the doubleteam as Mc-Cauley applies pressure defense.

McCauley and Salem's Brent Mull leap high into the air as they fight for a rebound.

Snyder leaps high in the air in an effort to grab a rebound from the outstretched hands of Drexel players.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders add much to the school spirit at O.F.H.S. Leading students in peppy cheers at ball games as well as in pep rallies, they are an essential asset to the school life.

To perfect their agility, the cheerleaders remain after school to practice the cheers.

Maintaining good co-operation among all the cheerleaders, collecting new and varied cheers, and seeing that everyone practices diligently are but a few of the jobs Sharon Hendley as Captain and Linda Wilson as Co-captain execute.

Helping to attain the best school spirit possible are the following girls, who are serving as cheerleaders this year. Left row: Doris Bryant, Ann Burgin, Johnsie Elliott, Jane Flintom, and Jo Lytle. Right row: Sharon Hendley, captain; Loretta Freeman, Revonda Robinson, Gail McGinnis, and Linda Wilson, cocaptain.

Displaying their skills during halftime, the cheer-leaders help to boost team spirit at ball games.

Old Fort Places Fourth In State

A calm quintet leaving for the State Tournament does not reflect the excitement of the student body shown in a pep rally a short time before.

Action in the State Tournament found Old Fort seeded in games with Midway, Ayden, and Jonesville.

Making a clean sweep of the District Tournament, the Redskins knocked off Nebo in the final round with a score of 71-57.

During a time-out, the Redskins receive strategic instructions from Coach Griffin.

Named the most valuable players in their field for the 1965-66 school year are Jimmy Willis, boy's basketball; Shirley Hartwell, girl's basketball; and Terry Hendley, football.

Awards

Billy Lytle, all around good athlete, was awarded the most valuable player award because of his outstanding ability in baseball.

Doris Bryant, recipient of the D.A.R. American History Award, studies diligently to maintain her high average.

Danny Willis, O.F. basketball star, brought further honor to himself and his school when he received Honorable Mention for All-American.

Having the ability to sew has proven profitable to Mona Teague who won first place in the P.T.A. Fashion Show.

Organizations
